How to use this journal

1. Team roster reference

The first 24 pages are roster reference pages, two teams per page. Once the final draw is announced and squads are named, fill in the starting XI and key reserves so you have every name in one place.

2. Group-stage scoresheets

Twelve pages, one per group (A–L), tracking every group-stage match. Fill in scores as they happen and circle the top two teams advancing.

3. Knockout tracker

Four pages cover the Round of 32, Round of 16, Quarterfinals, and the Semis + Final + Third-Place match. Draw your bracket as the tournament unfolds.

4. Match logs

Fifty-six match-log pages — one full page for every match you want to commemorate. Date, teams, venue, score, MVP, sketch box, and a notes section for moments you don't want to forget.

5. After the final

Use the last roster pages and group sheets as a permanent record. Tournaments are memory engines; this is the carrier.
